Meet the designer

Sue Gibbins (a.k.a. Rocket & Indigo) is a surface designer from a pretty little village in the northwest of England. Before setting up her design studio back in the UK, she lived in tropical climes teaching scuba diving and finding creative inspiration from her adventures. Her contemporary yet often nostalgic artwork is heavily influenced by nature, pattern and colour. She loves to find joy in the small things and translate that into happy designs to brighten people's day.
